

Happy National Poetry Day!

To celebrate we are having a poetry competition

You can either

write your own poem

or Illustrate one of your favourite poems

There will be a prize for the best illustration or poem from each class.

To help get you started there are some poetry books in school, here are some poetry websites

<https://sites.google.com/site/childrenspoems/alice-schertle>

<http://storyit.com/Classics/JustPoems/>

<https://www.poets.org/poetsorg/text/poems-kids>

or you could look up some poets, ones you might like include Celia Warren; Shel Silverstein; Michael Rosen; Spike Milligan; Lewis Carroll; Jan Dean

All entries should be handed in at school by Wednesday 12th October 2016, the winners will be announced on Friday 14th October.